DIVORCE MENACE

Senator Ransdell Says It Is Time for Nation to Put Down Evil.

HE PROPOSES AMENDMENT

Right to Remarry Would Be Prohibited Forever in United States.

Washington, February 4 .- Divorce marriage laws for all States and Ter-ritories, with provision for separation without permission to remarry, would be directed by the amendment. With the States of the Union granting more than twice as many divorces as all the rest of Christendom combined, Senator Ransdell told his colleaues that the time had come for the nation itself to put down this menace to "the chief bulwark of society, the home—the maker of good citizens and the model on which every wise government is founded."

"The remedy by constitutional pro-"The remedy by constitutional pro-hibition is drastic," said the Senator, "but the malady is so fatal that noth-ing short of it will prove efficacious. In the United States divorce is spread-in with alarming rapidity. It has per-meated every walk of life, and is pre-valent among every class of people. The total number of divorces granted in 1867 was 2,937, or 27 per 100,000 in 1867 was 9,937, or 27 per 100,000 population. Forty years later, in 1906, there were 72,062 divorces, or 86 per 100,000; thus, in actual numbers there were more than seven times as many divorces ranted in 1906 as in 1867, or, allowing for the increased population, divorce had increased 319 per cent.

divorce had increased population, divorce had increased 319 per cent.

Rapid Growth Indicated.

"If divorces multiply at the same rate in the future as in the past—and there is every indication that they will increase faster—then before the middle of this century we will have annually in the United States 275 divorces per 100,000 population, or one divorce for every five marriages.

"If the United States were to write in the Constitution an amendment prohibiting absolute divorce, it would not be taking such a radical step as might at first be thought, but would be following a heaten path. Our own State of South Carolina—all honor to herforbids divorce. It is absolutely prohibted in Italy, Spain, and to two-thirds of the population of Austria-Hungary, while the Latin-American countries of Mexico, Argentine Republic, Erazil, Peru, Chile, and others have lic, Brazil, Peru, Chile, and others have similar laws. "While many excellent people are di-to break up many more homes than it builds up, and to materially reduce the number of children. When mar-riage is dissolved the true homes ceases spring, and to teach other are broken forever.

"As long as the Romans of old looked upon marriage as sacred, and held the sanctity of the home inviolate, their arms were invulnerable, and Rome became mistress of the world But with the accumulation of colossal wealth came great laxity of morals; marriage became a jest, and child-bear-
